2008 CFI Freedom Conference Registration

☐ Yes, I would like to attend the 2008 Freedom Conference in Mae Sot, Thailand. I will read and sign the following waiver of liability. I will complete this registration form and mail it back to CFI along with a recommendation from my pastor or spiritual advisor.

Waiver of Liability

Disclaimer: CFI will not be held responsible for any property damage, claims, liabilities, accident, personal injury, death, inconvenience, changes in the program, faulty equipment, negligence on behalf of any hotel, airline, or travel service, or any other persons rendering services in conjunction with our programs. Anyone volunteering or attending the conference through CFI is responsible for their own expenses, safety, health, and welfare and enters any foreign country of their own accord knowing the risks that may be involved including, but not limited to, theft, sickness, abduction, weather, death, acts of war or rebellion, or any other cause whatsoever.

CFI reserves the right to decline or accept any request for participation in our volunteer opportunities at any time at the sole discretion of authorized CFI management and directors. CFI further reserves the right to dismiss any volunteer or conferee for any action, attitude, or other reason deemed inappropriate for a representative of CFI. Upon completion of or dismissal from term of volunteer service, participant agrees to immediately return home to the United States, unless otherwise agreed upon by CFI management.

Statement of Participant

My signature certifies that I have read and agreed to the foregoing statement of responsibility. I understand the risks involved and have made myself aware of all US State Department warnings concerning travel to foreign countries. I agree not to deviate from any instructions given to me by CFI directors and staff without their approval and will accept responsibility for my actions while serving as a volunteer under CFI's direction.
In the case of an emergency, I authorize any official representatives of CFI to secure medical treatment on my behalf, including surgery and the administration of an anesthetic, and I accept all financial responsibility for such treatment.
