Dear Friend,

Will you help us share the Word of God with a persecuted brother or sister in Christ in the brickyards of Pakistan?

I pray you will.

We are asking you to provide a Bible, for those who can read, or an audio Bible -- for those who cannot.

Both the Bibles and audio Bibles are in the Urdu language, the native language of Pakistan. The audio Bible is on an MP3 player and can be listened to by children and adults.

The Bibles we provide contain both Old and New Testaments, and are cherished among Believers. Many Christian brickyard workers either have no access to Bibles or can't afford one, so they are overjoyed by this opportunity.

The cost to provide a Bible or audio Bible is $10. We pray you can provide one or more Bible or audio Bible to a persecuted brother or sister slaving away in the brickyards.

Only caring Christians in the "free world" can take a stand for persecuted Believers in the "Muslim world." They have no one else.

That is why we have sent you the enclosed newsletter, to show you our ministry among persecuted Christians in the brickyards of Pakistan, work your gifts make possible.

Christians in the brickyards of Pakistan slave away making bricks for their Muslim masters six days a week, twelve hours a day. Entire families, including children and the elderly, must help meet the daily quota of bricks. Without your help, there is no relief from the grinding poverty.

Christian Freedom International co-workers go to the brickyards at great risk to deliver food, distribute medicine and clothes, and provide Bibles and education. Our co-workers teach the children Bible lessons and pray with the families.

Not only does CFI provide a helping hand to Believers inside the brickyards, we also speak out on their behalf on Capitol Hill; seeking to pressure the government of Pakistan to end the servitude of Christians in the brickyards. We work to raise awareness of their plight among journalists, and we call upon Believers around the world to pray, pray, pray.

(over, please)

Persecuted Christians in the brickyards so appreciate caring Christians like you, for your help to meet their basic needs. They have no one else.

I personally have visited Christians in the brickyards many times and I can tell you that your prayers and support help give them the hope to make it from day to day. Knowing that someone cares, that they are not forgotten, that they have a family in the Lord, is a huge blessing to a brother or sister in Christ you may never meet this side of eternity.

I know not everyone can go to the brickyards, but through CFI your sacrificial gift has a major impact.

A contribution of $10 will provide a much-needed Bible. Please provide a gift for as many Bibles as you can.

The Bible tells us that when one part of the body suffers, we all suffer. Nowhere is this more-true than in the Muslim world. That is why your prayers and sacrificial support are so important.

Christians in the brickyards of Pakistan have hopes and dreams of a better life. Just like you and me, they want to be able to worship God as free people.

We pray we can count on you to stand with the Persecuted Church in the brickyards of Pakistan.

As you may know, we are not funded by government grants or by the UN. The cause of the Persecuted Church is not talked about by Hollywood celebrities.

I cannot emphasize this enough . . . without you, and other caring Christians like you, persecuted Christians have no one else.

We must stand together and unite as believers in Christ.

We must do everything we can, while we can, for our brothers and sisters in Christ on the front lines of persecution. We must stand against the scourge of radical Islam before Christians are systematically killed or enslaved around the world.

So please, on behalf of Christians in the brickyards of Pakistan, respond today with the most generous gift you can today for Bibles. We need you standing with us on behalf of the Persecuted Church.

Thank you and may God bless you!

Sincerely in Christ,

P.S. Please, pray for our persecuted brothers and sisters, in Pakistan and around the world. Please act today to help a Christian slave in the brickyards of Pakistan with a much-needed and requested Bible. Your gift will be put to use immediately for our mission to the Persecuted Church in Pakistan.
