

Christian Freedom[®] International

August 2018

Dear Friend of the Persecuted,

We bought a shipping container. It's huge. 40 feet long. That's the size of a four-story building.

Then it was filled. Every square inch. With medical equipment and health care items. Items like diabetic supplies and mobile x-ray. Hospital beds and gurneys. Dental chairs, toothbrushes and dental care kits. Diapers and clothing. And encouraging notes from caring Christians.

Right now the container is crossing the ocean on its way to Kurdistan.

By early October, it will arrive. All these valuable items will be distributed to help Christian refugees, thousands who were forced by violent extremists to flee their war-torn villages in Iraq and are living in refugee centers, camps, or where ever they can find shelter until they can return to rebuild their shattered homes.

Wheelchairs, walkers and shower items will be given to people with handicaps and special needs. Medical equipment will go to hospitals in Mosul to help them rebuild now that ISIS is gone.

In Iraq, Christians were despised and called Infidels. With this container, they will know they are loved by God through these life-saving items and hand-written notes.

In Christ,
Wendy Wright
Wendy Wright

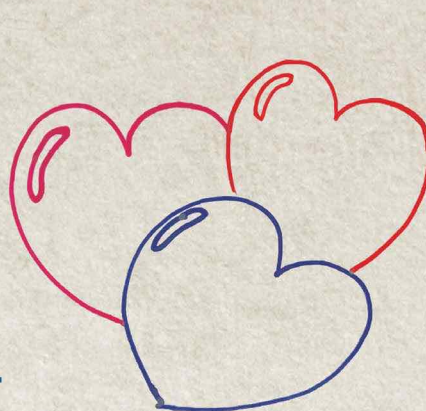

P.S. You can help. Pray for these Christians. Write a note - we can get it to Iraq. And give. Your gift gets tangible help to persecuted Christians.
